About the Signatory

DOT Europe is the European trade association representing the leading internet companies in Europe. Collectively our members provide Europe’s citizens and businesses with some of the internet’s most popular products, platforms and services.

DOT Europe brings a diverse membership together to agree on their collective stance on EU tech policy by means of consensus-based position creation.

DOT Europe stands for an innovative, open and safe internet for Europe’s citizens and businesses.

IV. Integrity of Services (to be removed if the signatory is not taking commitments/measures from this chapter)List of adopted commitments and measures ¹*Qualitative reporting elements and service level indicators²

Commitment 37

Measures 37.1 to 37.6

Commitment 38

Provide reasoning for the choice of commitments and measures, as well as future plans (if applicable)

DOT Europe fully commits to continue its role in raising awareness on the Code and its developments as outlined in the revised Code of Practice Preamble “The Signatories recognise that trade associations which have signed this Code are not entering into obligations due to

¹ Text of the commitments/measures as per Code of Practice or adapted to be more relevant or proportionate

² Each commitment / measure to be accompanied by either a Qualitative Reporting Element and/or quantitative Service Level Indicator as per Code of Practice or adapted to be more relevant or proportionate their nature on behalf of their members. However, these associations commit to make their members fully aware of this Code, and encourage them to join it or respect its principles, as appropriate.”

Due to our limited resources and the fact that we have no access to data or measurable outcomes we will be unable to contribute to the reporting directly. We do not provide any service that would fall within the scope of the Code of Practice and will therefore be unable to make any commitments in that regard.
